Mr. Martin,

I wanted to take a minute and let you know how pleased I am with your staff on this project. I also want say that Nick Coffman was an extraordinary extension of your company and you should be well pleased with this young man. On many occasions throughout this project there have been many challenges and Nick and your company handled them in a very timely manner.

Again I want to thank you for your entire teams work on this project and especially notice Nick for his outstanding dedication to this project! I look forward to working with your company in the near future.

Best Regards,

Rob Bichard
